National Bank of Arizona Women's Financial Group Announces Newest Advisory Council Member.

Phoenix, Ariz. – The Women's Financial Group (WFG), a nonprofit organization which offers women a local, one stop resource for financial planning, business services, networking and peer-to-peer mentoring, announced Barbara McDugald as its newest Advisory Council member.

"National Bank of Arizona (NB|AZ) extends itself into the business community in diverse and innovative ways." Barbara said, "It is well-recognized for its charitable contributions to the community as a whole. And now with the innovative Women's Financial Group, NB|AZ is reaching out to this discrete market niche with products and programs uniquely tailored to the needs of women business owners. I am very proud to be associated with NB|AZ in this exciting endeavor."

Ms. McDugald, is an Attorney, Industrial Engineer and business executive with over 25 years of legal and business experience in finance, insurance, M&A, distressed businesses, real estate, and manufacturing. Barbara has been involved with philanthropic organizations throughout the valley for over 25 years. In addition to her work with the Women's Financial Group, Barbara is Vice President and General Council for Security Title Agency, Inc.

"Barbara is a wonderful addition to the council," said Roseanne Holewinski, Vice President, National Bank of Arizona Women's Financial Group. "Her enthusiasm and passion around women's and business issues is a perfect fit for the work the group is doing in the community to mentor Arizona business women."
